Terre Foods Cooperative Market is in the initial phases of starting a local and organic food co-op here in Terre Haute which will be a full-service grocery store located in the downtown area. Become part of a member-owned market that is committed to serving the needs of community while using ethical and sustainable business practices!

Join us for a local and organic lunch, receive more information on the benefits of becoming a member, and bring your check book or credit card to become a member on the spot!
